Treasure House Fair

From Galileo's first drawing of the Moon and the photo of Earth captured aboard Apollo 8, to a 400,000-year-old woolly rhinoceros' leg and Marie Antoinette's dog bed, Treasure House Fair returns this summer with a trove of whimsical curiosities and invaluable antiquities. From 24 to 30 June, 60 galleries – from distinguished newcomers to established dealers – will convene at the Royal Hospital Chelsea to showcase their exceptional panorama of collectables. Amidst the Renaissance jewels, the Picassos and the Hockneys, this year's highlights include the Sculpture Walk, a display of contemporary British women artists, and a new exhibition celebrating 90 years of British surrealism with rarely-seen works from Southampton City Art Gallery.
