

Diary dates

Treasure House Fair

Royal Hospital Chelsea, SW3, June 26-July 1

Now in its third year, Treasure House Fair has established itself as a destination for serious collectors of art, design and jewellery. It brings together more than 60 dealers, including Philip Mould & Company and Richard Green, whose offering includes Sir John Lavery's Paisley Lawn Tennis Club, 1889 (above). Entry £25. treasurehousefair.com

Sussex Craft Week

June 14-22

Debuting this year, this festival celebrates the wealth and variety of craft in Sussex. Presented by ROSA Magazine (Review of Sussex Arts) in partnership with West Dean college, the week will feature exhibitions, open studios, demonstrations and workshops by Sussex-based artisans. Among them are the sculptor and furniture maker Alison Crowther (above) and ceramicist Elaine Sheppard Bolt. rosamagazine.co.uk

London Design Biennale

Somerset House, WC2, June 5-29

In its fifth edition, the London Design Biennale returns to showcase contemporary, thought-provoking design with curated installations and events. Following a theme of Surface Reflections, there will be over 40 national pavilions, representing countries including Argentina, Malta and Nigeria. Tickets cost from £22. londondesignbiennale.com