Treasure House Fair

The much anticipated Treasure House Fair, the summer art fair known for its staggering trove of masterpieces and curiosities will return to the Royal Chelsea Hospital this June.

Sixty galleries will convene during the week to showcase everything from fine art and furniture to rare treasures such as Galileo's first drawings of the surface of the moon and a 1699 Table from Queen Mary II's bedchamber at Kensington Palace (pictured). Alongside the fair will be an outdoor Sculpture Walk featuring monumental works and major exhibition celebrating 90 years of British Surrealism, with rarely seen works from Southampton City Art Gallery.
