

SERIOUS PURSUITS

SERIOUS PURSUITS: JUNE

Refreshingly different things to do this month, from miniature masterpieces to major art fairs

30 May 2024

'And what is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, come perfect days'... and we have compiled a refreshingly different list of perfect ways to fill them, featuring A-list art-fairs, enticing exhibitions, pleasing pop-ups and a tantalising tasting menu...

TO DO

The Treasure House Fair

The ultimate booty sale, the Treasure House Fair returns to its magnificent former almshouse for the second year. Established by the co-founders of the original Masterpiece fair in 2009, the event is now increasing its roster by 30 per cent, bringing together 70 top galleries displaying the rare and the beautiful from antiquity to the present day. Among the star turns are a medicine chest belonging to Nelson's surgeon and cannons from the Battle of Trafalgar courtesy of Wicks Antiques. Details: treasurehousefair.com

Carlo Bugatti, desk and chair, c1904, formerly in the studio of Giovanni Giacometti, painter and father of Alberto Giacometti. The pieces of furniture feature in works by both artists. Sladmore, London